

Your Name:

---

Email Address:

---

Dropoff locations:

- Front door mail slot at the Edmonds Historical Museum at 118 5th Ave N (top of stairs)
- The Edmonds Historical Museum's info booth at the Summer Market

One winner will be randomly drawn each week August 13th - September 10th and will be notified via email.

Enter to win a custom Lovin' Summer t-shirt each week!

1. Answer each scavenger hunt question
2. Fill out your contact information inside
3. Drop off your completed form at one of the indicated locations

One winner will be randomly drawn each week August 13th - September 10th and will be notified via email.

Scan the code below for more information:

Family Scavenger Hunt

Have fun in the sun as you find these landmarks, historical locations and just fun stuff around Edmonds!

Family Scavenger Hunt

Answer each question, then turn in your form for a chance to win a custom Lovin' Summer t-shirt!

#1 These salmon are swimming a bit away from the water! The carved cedar panel "Marsh Life" reflects on the Coast Salish people of our area.

Where is this carving located?

---

#2 Sticks and stones may break my bones, but "RAWR" means I love you in dinosaur! This Main Street Cretaceous protector watches over Edmonds.

What store is she in?

---

#3 These two "grains" offer a close and snackable view along Main Street.

What is the name of this restaurant?

---

#4 From the sandy beaches and water to all the way up the hill this roadway shuttles people past the "main" streets of Downtown Edmonds.

What is the name of this street?

---

BONUS QUESTION: What was the original name of this street? HINT: the name is stamped between 5th and 6th Ave N by the crosswalks.

What is the original name of this street?

---

#5 Protected by a giant squid, this local "fishmonger" sets the table with tastes from the sea. Don't worry, mermaid is NOT on the menu.

What is the name of the fishmonger?

---

#7 Have you been asking yourself "Where's Waldo" or "Where the Wild Things Are"? Just take a look! It's in a book!

What is the name of this bookshop?

---

#8 Bibbidi bobbidi b-b-b-bubbles? After enjoying the beach enjoy some bubbly boba tea in this old "mill town" area of Edmonds.

What is the name of the tea shop?

---

#9 I'll splash and gurgle as you drive around and around and around me in the center of town.

What am I ?

---

#10 This large blue, white and gold flying fowl watches over 4th Ave N, honoring the relationship between Edmonds and her Sister City in Japan.

What is the name of Edmonds' Sister City?

---

#11 You won't need a special "tour" guide to get around Edmonds, but you can plan your next European adventure right here in this brick building on 4th Ave N!

What is the name of this business?

---

#12 This holly jolly holiday reminder reaches for the sky year-round near Bell St, but only gets "lit" up once a year. The festive festivities at this annual community ceremony include special guest appearances from the North Pole and an abundance of ornaments. (2 for 1)!

What is this holiday reminder and where is it located?

---

#13 Your scavenger hunt cards don't belong in a "museum"...or don't they? These impressive concrete steps lead you up to Carnegie's vision and hope for higher learning. Head back to where you started and drop your scavenger hunt cards here in the mail slot!

What is this building?

---

