#1 I'll dance and splash and blub in the sun as you drive around and around and around me in the center of town.

What am I?

#2 Overlooking Main St, this creature is not just another brick in the wall. Chasing Orcas and those summer vibes, this mural celebrates #edmondsgowntown.

What kind of animal am I?

#3 This Main Street Queen...no wait, Duchess!...no wait,...PRINCESS is celebrating 100 years screening the Golden Age of film. Thankfully, the concessions are fresh!

What is the name of this picture house?

#4 The menu doesn't need any additional "salt" and pepper to take first place for surf'n'turf. Shuck, slice, or sauté your way to this Main Street eatery.

What is the name of this restaurant?

#5 Birds of a "feather" flock together at this place for snail mail salutations.

What is the name of this stationary store on 3rd Ave N?

#6 Spokane, Suquamish, and Walla Walla are a few of the regulars "ferrying" traffic along this watery route.

What am I?

#7 Go where the seaweed is always greener right here on the ocean floor! If hiking in the sand is too much of a mess, try life under the sea. Hint: This park is the only aquatic trail system in Edmonds.

What is the name of this park?

#8 NEIGH Neiiiigh neeeeeigh neigh NEIGH" is corporate lingo for "Grab a kombucha and improve your work-life balance".

What is the name of this coworking space on 2nd Ave S?

#9 It's okay to pitch a tent at this store. Fireflies and mosquitos won't bug you as you stock your "camp" site with all the bestest in retro swag.

What is the name of this store on 4th Ave S?

#10 This building is buzzing full of style—Spanish Mission Revival, that is. Rising from the ashes of a 1909 fire, this concrete business block now inspires artists, stylists, and the Edmonds creative center. Hint: The historical plaque is located next to Rebekah's Boutique.

What is the name of this building?

#11 Speeding is encouraged to this Detroit Style establishment to sink your teeth into some delicious oddities.

What is the name of this pizza place on Main St?

#12 I began life by saying "shush!" but now I keep the City's memories. Help me celebrate and blow out 50 birthday candles this year! Finish where you started and drop off your scavenger cards here in the mail slot!
